Read the text and answer the questions

Robin Hood and his merry men lived in Sherwood Forest near the town of Nottingham. They were good friends to all the poor people. They stopped rich men who were passing through Sherwood Forest and took their money. Then they gave that money to the poor. The poor people of England loved Robin Hood and his men. The sheriff of Nottingham wanted to kill Robin Hood. He sent his soldiers to Sherwood Forest many times, but they could not catch Robin Hood. No one can prove that such a man as Robin Hood really lived. All that we know about him comes from ballads. Most ballads are based on facts, and it is almost certain that in the 12th century a man who said that his name was Robin Hood lived in the forest as an outlaw.
