Dear Michael,

I hope you're doing well! Last weekend, my family and I went on a trip to a nature reserve. It took us two hours to drive there, but it was worth it!

The reserve had a beautiful lake surrounded by tall trees. We walked along the hiking trails and saw different birds and animals. The highlight of the trip was seeing a deer drinking water from the lake. It was incredible!

In the afternoon, we had a picnic. The food was delicious, and we enjoyed the fresh air. Before leaving, we visited a small visitor center that had information about the history of the area.

I loved this trip because it was peaceful and exciting at the same time. What was the most interesting place you have ever visited?

Best,
