Good morning! This is the city radio with our cultural news. If you are interested in art, don't miss the new exhibition at the City Gallery. It opened yesterday and will last until the end of the month. The exhibition shows works by young local artists, including paintings, sculptures, and photographs. Some of the artists are students who already won prizes in national competitions.

The gallery is open every day except Monday, from 10 am to 6 pm. On Fridays it stays open longer, until 8 pm, so people can visit after work or school. Tickets are 200 rubles for adults and free for children under 12. Students and pensioners can buy tickets at a reduced price of 100 rubles. Guided tours are available at 12 o'clock and 3 o'clock every day. On weekends there is an extra evening tour at 6 o'clock. If you want to take part, please register in advance on the gallery's website.

Hello Daniel,

Thank you for your letter. In my free time I usually read books or listen to music. I also enjoy playing computer games with my classmates. Twice a week I go to the sports centre where I swim and sometimes play basketball. I usually spend one or two hours a day on my hobbies, depending on how much homework I have. At weekends I spend more time with my family. We often go for a walk or watch a film together.

What sports do you want to try in the future? Write back soon.
Best wishes,
Your friend

Good afternoon! Here are the latest announcements for this weekend in our city. On Saturday and Sunday, the City Theatre will present a new play called The Secret Garden. The play is based on a famous English novel and tells the story of a girl who discovers a magical garden. The actors are both professionals and local students, so it will be interesting for children and adults.

The performances start at 2 pm and 6 pm. Tickets are 300 rubles for adults, 150 rubles for schoolchildren, and free for children under 6. If you buy tickets online, you can get a small discount. After the performance there will be a short discussion with the director, where visitors can ask questions.

The theatre is in the city centre, next to the main library. You can get there by bus number 15 or by metro. Remember that the theatre café will also be open, offering snacks and drinks before the play and during the break. We hope to see you at the theatre this weekend!

Hello Alice,

Thank you for your letter. I usually spend my holidays in the countryside with my grandparents. We live near a river, so I like swimming and fishing there. Sometimes I also travel with my parents to the mountains, where we go hiking and enjoy the fresh air. I usually travel with my family, but sometimes I go on trips with my school too. During holidays I enjoy reading, taking photos, and meeting new people. What country would you like to visit most in the future? Write back soon.

Best wishes,

Your friend

Good morning, listeners! Here is some information about an exciting event in our city. This Saturday, the City Sports Centre will host an international swimming competition. Young athletes from different countries, including Russia, will take part. The event will start at 10 am and continue until 5 pm.

The competition includes races of different lengths: 50, 100, and 200 metres. Both boys and girls will compete. There will also be a relay race at the end of the day. Spectators can watch the competitions from the stands. Tickets cost 250 rubles for adults, 100 rubles for children under 14, and they are free for children under 7.

The sports centre is located on Park Street, next to the big shopping mall. You can get there by bus number 24 or by tram number 6. Remember that there is no parking near the sports centre, so it's better to use public transport. The organisers advise coming earlier to find good seats. We hope you enjoy the competition!

Hello Peter,

Thank you for your letter. At weekends I usually spend time with my family and friends. On Saturdays I often go to the sports centre, where I swim and sometimes play basketball. On Sundays I like walking in the park with my parents or reading books at home. I usually spend my weekends with my family, but sometimes I meet my classmates to do homework together. I prefer active rest because it gives me more energy, but sometimes I also like quiet evenings. What films do you usually watch with your friends? Write back soon.

Good morning! Here is the information about the new science exhibition at the City Museum. The exhibition is called Discovering Space and is dedicated to space travel and astronomy. Visitors can see real spacesuits, models of rockets, and photographs taken from space. There is also an interactive zone where children can try simple experiments.

The exhibition will last for two months, from March to May. The museum is open every day except Tuesday. On weekdays it works from 10 am to 6 pm, and on weekends it is open until 8 pm. Tickets are 300 rubles for adults, 150 rubles for schoolchildren, and free for children under 7. There are family tickets too, which make the visit cheaper.

The museum is located on Victory Avenue, near the central park. You can take bus number 12 or the metro. Visitors are asked not to take food or drinks into the exhibition halls, but there is a small café on the first floor. Don't forget to visit the museum shop, where you can buy souvenirs like postcards, books, and models of rockets.

Hello Emily,

Thank you for your letter. I also enjoy reading in my free time. My favourite books are detective stories and historical novels. Sometimes I read fairy tales with my younger sister, and she likes them a lot. I usually read in the evening before going to bed, about three or four times a week. I think paper books are more comfortable to read because I like the smell of paper and turning real pages, but e-books are also good when I travel. What is the most interesting book you have read recently? Write back soon.

Good evening! Here are some announcements about events in our city. This Sunday the City Concert Hall will host a music festival called Voices of the World. Choirs from different countries will take part, including groups from Italy, France, and Japan. The festival will start at 4 pm and last until 9 pm.

The programme includes classical songs, modern pop music, and traditional folk melodies. The organisers want to show how music can unite people from different cultures. Tickets cost 500 rubles for adults, 250 rubles for students, and children under 10 can enter for free. Family tickets are also available.

The Concert Hall is located on Central Square, next to the big fountain. You can get there by metro or by bus number 7. Doors will open at 3 pm, so visitors are advised to arrive early. During the break there will be a small exhibition about the history of choirs, and a café will offer drinks and snacks.

Hello Sarah,

Thank you for your letter. I really enjoy sports too. My favourite sport is football, because I like playing in a team with my classmates. We usually play in the school stadium twice a week, and sometimes I also play in the park at weekends. I also like swimming, which I usually do in the summer. I think team sports are great because they help us to make friends and work together, but individual sports are good for concentrating on your own progress. What is your favourite tennis player? Good morning! Today we would like to tell you about the new exhibition at the City History Museum. It is called The Life of the Middle Ages. Visitors can see models of castles, suits of armour, and everyday objects that people used hundreds of years ago. There is also a collection of old maps, which shows how people imagined the world in the past.

The exhibition will be open until the end of June. The museum works from Tuesday to Sunday, 9 am to 7 pm. On Thursdays it closes later, at 9 pm. Tickets cost 400 rubles for adults, 200 rubles for students, and children under 7 can visit free of charge. Family tickets are also available at the entrance and online.

The museum is located near Victory Park, opposite the big theatre.

Visitors are asked not to use flash when taking photographs. If you get hungry, you can visit the museum café, which offers snacks, sandwiches, and hot drinks. On weekends there are special guided tours in English at 1 pm and 4 pm.

Hello Oliver,

Thank you for your letter. I really enjoy music too. My favourite style is pop, because it is energetic and makes me feel happy. I also sometimes listen to classical music when I need to concentrate. I don't play an instrument now, but I would like to learn the piano in the future. I usually listen to music on my phone when I walk to school or do my homework. At weekends I often listen to music with my friends. Do you write your own songs for the band? Write back soon.

Hello everyone! Don't miss the annual City Film Festival, which will take place next week at the Central Cinema. The festival will show films from more than twenty countries, including comedies, dramas, and documentaries. Some of the films are in English with Russian subtitles, and others are in Russian with English subtitles.

The festival opens on Monday at 6 pm with a French comedy. Each evening there will be three different films. On Saturday there will be a special children's programme in the morning. Tickets cost 400 rubles for adults, 200 rubles for students, and children under 10 can enter free of charge. You can also buy a festival card, which allows you to visit as many films as you want during the week.

The cinema is located near the railway station, and you can get there by metro or by tram number 5. The café in the cinema will be open all day, and there will be meetings with directors after some films. The organisers recommend booking tickets online in advance.

Hello Grace,

Thank you for your letter. My favourite food is traditional Russian dishes. I especially like pelmeni and borscht. We usually cook them at home, and I eat them about once or twice a week. Sometimes we go to a restaurant, but I think home food is tastier and healthier. At restaurants I like trying new dishes from other countries, for example sushi or Indian curry. I prefer eating at home most of the time, but going out to eat is fun too. What is the best restaurant you have ever visited? Write back soon.

Good morning! Here is some information about the City Science Fair, which will take place this weekend at the Exhibition Hall. Students from different schools will present their projects in physics, chemistry, biology, and technology. Visitors will see experiments, computer programmes, and even small robots built by pupils.

The fair opens on Saturday at 11 am and continues until 6 pm. On Sunday it works from 10 am to 5 pm. A one-day ticket is 300 rubles for adults, 150 rubles for students, and free for children under 8. A two-day ticket is cheaper — 500 rubles for adults and 250 rubles for students.

Tickets can be bought online or at the entrance.

There will also be lectures by university professors at 12 pm and 3 pm on both days. On Sunday afternoon a special prize will be given to the most creative project. Visitors are asked to come early, as the hall is usually very crowded. A small buffet will be open on the second floor with drinks and snacks.
